

INFECTION PREVENTION IN HEALTH CARE SETTINGS WORKSHOP TRAINING SCHEDULE

Goal: To ensure Infection Prevention in health care service delivery

Objectives: By the end of the workshop, participants will be able to:

- Understand the principles and importance of Infection Prevention in health care settings.
- Understand and demonstrate the principles and components of infection prevention practices and also Biomedical Waste management
- Develop an action plan listing changes to ensure infection prevention practices and Biomedical Waste Management

Topic
Welcome, Introduction , Expectations, Norms, Overview & Goals
Pre-test
Introduction to standard precautions <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Who is at Risk?• Disease transmission cycle, Antiseptics and disinfectants,• Listing standard precautions.
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Hand-wash• Surgical hand scrub
Protective attires and use of gloves
Processing of instruments <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Decontamination• Cleaning• Sterilization• High level disinfection• Storage
Use and disposal of sharps and preventing accidents
Housekeeping and maintaining a sterile field
Segregation and disposal of Bio-medical Waste
Wrap up Post-test, final evaluation and closing